I was so sorry to see the notice in the Sunday paper of my dear Aunt Jo's passing. Very simply, she was one of the most wonderful person I have ever known. I remember bringing my sons to her place in Clarkston to fish and she would prepare a feast for us. What i remember the most is all the love and support she gave my parents and my brother and I during the years, especially when my mom was dealing with cancer. I have never forgotten that and I never will. My deepest condolences to the family, but we are all supported by the fact that we got to be a part of this wonderful womans life!Love, Ed Stanton

Jo has been my friend since 2001. We belonged to the same writers group until she moved from Holiday up to New Port Richey. I visited her and "Frou Frou" in her Holiday home, we went out to lunch together a few times, and we remained e-mail buddies. She was such an interesting, free spirit. But she was also a loyal friend and family member. I remember her talking about the grandson who lived nearby, about her youth -- all kinds of things. And, importantly, we laughed together! I loved Jo and miss her already.Deanna BennettPalm Harbor, Florida
