One could not ask for a better neighbor than Rob. During the past 4 years we talked and visited many times from our lanais. There was always a variety of topics, including football, cooking and of course, his family that he adored. He was a true gentleman, so very kind and would do anything to help others. I will never forget the wonderful meals he cooked for us during a time of illness - delicious! Rob will be sorely missed by his family and friends, but we'll always have memories. Good bye, our dear friend. We will not forget you. We love you, Bill and Vera Mullaney
