Dear Morris family, I truly hope you'll accept my deep regrets for your loss even though we don't know each other because death is our enemy and always brings much grief and pain but comfort and hope is what I found when this enemy took my entire family. I found this in Jehovah's word the Bible at John 5:28,29 where Jesus states that we'll see our love one again because he's going to bring them back in the resurrection and this is what helps me get through each day and I'm hoping this will help you in some way also for this is my purpose in sharing this with you and you can also find more information at www.jw.org and also if you'd like you can reach me at gloriamosley@hotmail.com please know I do share your grief. Sincerely, GM
