Maria, Joanne, Nancy, Marianne, and Sandra, I am so very sorry to hear the awful news. My heart is broken. Please accept my deepest sympathies to all of you for your loss. I've started praying in hopes to help you all cope with this difficult moment. I cannot imagine the pain that you guys are feeling because I am hurt to the core myself. JoeyChement was that one rare person who is the very best of all of us. I am going to miss our long conversations, his incredible sense of humor, his devotion to his family, going to the track together, taking Joey's money in poker, getting sensible advice from him, having a Scotch with my friend, learning how to deal with challenges with his prudent advice, knowing he cared about me, his genuine good-natured personality, and just coming to terms that the nicest man on the planet has been taken from us. I loved JoeyChement and I miss him dearly as I know you do. Please accept my sympathies and know that I grieve with you for our loss. I treasure the memories that I have from being privileged to have known such a wonderful man. With all my love, Dave F.
