Dear baby brother, loving husband and devoted father. You are cancer free now and that is a good thing. I watched you grow into the fine man you were. You were loved by so many and I remember how you spent so much time with our mother in her final days here on earth. You were truly one of a kind. Our family will miss you terribly but we take comfort in knowing you were well cared for over the past year by your fantastic wife Becky and her loving family. God truly blessed you with such a great wife, child and in-laws that loved you as much if not more than us. May you rest in peace now and look down upon us all from the heavens above. Your loving big sister, Linda Mullino Campbell

Rebecca, Your love for John is so obvious to all who know you. May God provide you with the strength to face the difficult time ahead. Although I know that no words can ease the great loss you feel, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer. Praying that you have found peace, John. Elaine Casnellie
