Imogene Spector

MAR 1, 1925 - JUN 14, 2017

A native of Ball Ground Georgia, Imogene was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Her warm personality, strong Christian faith, love for her family and hospitality to others were hallmarks in her life. She was a skilled homemaker, cook & seamstress. During WWII, she used her talents to assemble bombers at the Lockheed Martin plant in Georgia and postwar was placed in charge of the secure blueprint vault.

She loved her role as a mom and was always supportive and proud of her children. After raising her family in New Jersey for 22 years, she and her husband Burton, moved to New Port Richey Florida. After Burton's passing in 1997, she moved closer to her son Gregory and eventually became a resident at Consulate Health Care of Brandon Florida where she lived till her passing.

Imogene is survived by her sons Gregory Cagle & wife Kim, Anthony Spector & wife Barbara and Edward Spector & wife Susan. She was also blessed with 8 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren and 1 great great-grandchild on the way. She will be laid to rest with her husband Burton Spector at Trinity Memorial Garden in New Port Richey, FL.

A service will be held at their facility at 11am on Tuesday June 27th, 2017.
