Debbie made everyone happy and safe. She was truly loved by everyone she meant. Her smile could light up a room. God is very lucky to have her by his side. She will be greatly missed.

Will miss the sunshine your brought with you and your offers of giving away cookies on the 8th floor to me. I can still hear "Take a cookie Joanie!" You are an angel! On earth and in heaven. Will miss you and your laughter

Debbie, knowing you has been my special gift from above. The memories you have shared of your love for your family has often brought me back to remember what is really important. Your joy and happiness in everyday occurrences was like a dose of sunshine for everyone around you. I can't thank you enough for all the phone calls of reassurance that my sick grandchildren were fine. You saved me many ER visits. Thank you for all your help with their catholic school projects. We would still be trying to find saints to write about if it wasn't for you. Your laugh, your smile will be remembered forever. Please save me a spot in heaven. I know when I see you again that we will continue on with all your funny stories. Love Dawne
