Seems like yesterday when Jeff called me up about going to our 25th reunion. He would not take no for an answer. It was the start of a renewal of a lasting friendship. Shortly after that some great business advise as well as legal work and some family and friends gatherings. Life and family commitments seemed to separate us again for a bit until this year. A couple rounds of golf later was going to be just the start. of dinners grilling and other fellowship plans we made. You will be missed greatly! Rest well old friend!

It seemed like a chance meeting, but I believe that God brought Jeff and I together. It was a time when we were both in pain, we shared our stories with each other, comforted each other, and offered support and encouragement. We fell in love. We put the pain behind us and began to enjoy life and each other's company. I will always remember the travel, NASCAR, golf, fishing, and Gator games. But most of all I will miss this loyal loving man. God bless Jeff Fuller.

jeff fuller was my friend. I've known him for almost 50 years. although there was a time of absence when he was off to college, he always remained on my mind. when I heard he was practicing law in tampa I immediately contacted him and we had lunch. it was as if we never missed a beat. I was introduced to his family, and at the time he had 3 awesome children whom he cherished. we talked occasionally and even attended some get togethers at his house. one time babalou had a little too much to drink and had a hard time getting home, a memory he never lets me forget. I had the priviledge of remodeling jeff's house for him and his wife, and I always hoped that he was pleased with the results. he said he was so that was enough for me. my buddy always tried to look at the positive in things, although he still was very opinionated. but then again, he was a lawyer.i did my best to try and make jeff's stress in his life as painless as possible, because I knew he was going thru some difficult times. I always tried to lend an ear. words cannot express the hole that is left in my life without him, but at least he is at peace. all I can do know is remember the jeff fuller that will always be my friend. rest in peace, fuller central command-out.
