Syeeta Pastrana

MAR 19, 1993 - DEC 7, 2017

Syeeta Pastrana 24, March 19, 1993 – December 7, 2017, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loved ones. She was an angel in disguise taken from us too soon. She was a loving daughter, sister, companion and a great friend to all who knew her.

When she was playing her video games, filming movies, being silly or when she was playing with her pets Syeeta was like a 12 year old. When she was serious and being a support to those who needed her she was a mature, wise young lady. But when she was struggling with Lupus she felt as if she was 90 years old.

Syeeta loved her family, pets, photography and videogames. She enjoyed the arts and wanted a career in the veterinary field. She was a blessing to all who crossed her path. She was kind, caring, would never judge anyone and accepted all as they were.

We are at peace knowing that she is now in heaven with her sister Tabatha, sister-in-law Rosaria, father Jose, mother Carmen and her many loved ones and friends.

In lieu of flowers we ask that you make a donation to the American Lupus Foundation in Syeeta's honor. http://support.lupus.org/site/TR/P2P/General?px=2175530&pg=personal&fr_id=1140

I remember spending nights at the hospital and it was like a sleepover. We made the hospital bareable for eachother countless times. We used to sing to the doctors we used to play jokes on the nurses I used to spend almost every day with her when I lived in Florida and after we planned so many trips so many things that we can't do nowl literally lost myself it feels like. She was part of me. I love you syeeta. I love you so much dude I think about you and write to you every day just like we used to. I still give you a shout out on every broadcast but I haven't had the heart to play games we used to. I just want to hear your voice again so bad I just want to hug you again.Literally i wake up every night and cry because i love you . your family always and always my friend. I can't wait to see you dude I just want to see you. I miss you and love you

To the family of Syeeta, I am so sorry for your loss. I just did a 23and me DNA test, got the results today and she came up as a top match to me. I sent a Facebook message. When I googled her this obituary came up. I am so sorry she passed before I could connect with her. I don't know if she did the test to find family but I am here. Any information you would be willing to provide would be most appreciated. Tess Padmore (tesspadmore@gmail.com). She looked so much like many in my family. I've included a photo of myself.

Having Syeeta in my life has been a blessing. She always treated everyone with love and respect, and always wanted to make a difference. Syeeta knew that life is short, so she made sure to let everyone know how special they were everyday.

Syeeta was the epitome of what being a best friend is all about, I spent countless days in the hospital and out of the hospital with her and I wouldn't change it for the world. I had countless moments within our nine years of friendship to realize that there was no better friend than her. from hanging out in a bathroom smoking cigs like a bad ass, to watching her grow and find the love of her life, kaitlyn. Syeeta found a really great woman, she loved her til the day she passed and then some. Syeeta was very blessed, and she deserved it all. Syeeta's last words to me was "you can call me anytime" well, syeeta, trust me, I've called and keep callin for you.. I will never forget you, you will always be in my heart. Syeeta, you lived one hell of a life, and I can't wait to see you on the other side. until then my greatest friend.

You put the lion king decorations up for your Godson over his crib. Now your God daughter sleeps in that crib. Last night she reached her hand out to it, something she has never done. I believe it was you she was reaching out to.
