Jim I have known you for many years as our kids grew up together. You always had a smile on your face and were always in good spirits. We may not have been close but I feel close to your whole family since I have known you all since elementary school. You will truly be missed by all. It is sad to see you go at such a young age. I am so sorry to your family and am sending them my thoughts and prayers. You raised great kids and now grandkids. Please rest in peace my friend. You will never be forgotten. The Moulder Family

36 years ago you walked into my life crossing mcmullen booth rd one sock on the other halfway off your foot smiling from ear to ear. Then we all moved in together the refrigerator had a keg set up in it the little one next to it was for food. Your mom came in we all ran and hid from her. I skipped School for two days to clean your house. You teaching me to drive so I could go pick you up at Dunedin lanes. Picking you up from Burger King because you passed out in the drive thru. The rat still not sure who was more scared Gayle you or me Butterscotch trapped it and you killed it. You and Bubba crashing our teenage parties jumping in the pool boots and all. Running into each other off Gunn hwy and 54 me pregnant as a house. Reaching out to Gayle we began texting and then we met at the Cop shop from the night you walked me to my car saw my Harley Davidson stuff all over my car, then after years of waiting you killed me and I melted. You pulled up KNOWING it was meant to be our day finally came for us to be together. Up all night laughing talking crying our trips to the beach our nights in hotels our laughs my many trips to the circle k for fountain sodas snickers with almonds energy shots. You and I Laughing so hard because your mom was stuck in the couch. You Showing up at my momma's house all hours of the night. You Showing up to the hospital at 4am $200 in cab fair just to kiss me good night and tell me you love me. The Rose's on my porch after work. Me working a double you coming down the stairs in your boxers and a dozen Rose's grilling steaks. Running around the property acting like teenagers. The outside morning showers. You calling or texting out of the blue saying you are coming home to me. Hailie walking in screaming on top of her lungs we laughed for years. Walking in with your Jared bag waving it in my face saying I got it at Jared. The way we laughed danced would know exactly what we were thinking without saying a word. All the motorcycle rides, fun Fridays, trips to the beach. Sleepiness nights up talking about everything. You phone calls ranting about who pissed you off that day. Harley getting a bath running in the swamp rolling in sand. Bon fries at Rheads. Late night dinners. Dancing every song has a memory of you/us. No one NO ONE CAN EVER TAKE THAT FROM ME. REST IN PEACE JIMMY. No more sleeplessness nights no more stress no more anything but peace love and serenity. Until were together again I LOVE YOU ALWAYS THE SHERIFF IF HONEY. I am seeing you in my dreams the past two nights PLEASE talk to me ALL MY LOVE ALWAYS " Brantly Gilbert That girls my bestfriend " I LOVE YOU ALWAYS

To my Dearest Uncle Jimmy, I don't know where to start because I still can't believe that you are gone. You were one hell of an awesome father, husband, uncle, brother, and friend. You have touch so many life's in this world. I know that this world won't be the same without you in it. You was always like a father to me. You took me in without a second guess. You taught me how to drive a car when I was only 14 years old. I remember every summer me and Becky would go on vacation with you. Rather we went to Disney World or River Ranch. From the first day until the last day you always made sure that we all had a smile on our face and if we did then you were surly to put a smile on our face somehow someway. I am going to miss all your jokes and story. I am going to miss the way you use to always goof around and the way you would grab my hand and say come on you little short shit lets go dance and lets show these people how you are suppose really boogie on down. I will never forget the day of Mandy's graduation party i had just got out of the hospital from having my 2nd son and you said to pack everything that JD will need and to get my butt over there and have some fun and to not worry about JD that he will be taken care of and when I got there you took JD from me and started to feeding him his bottle and that hole night you wouldn't let him go nor would you let anyone else hold him until he had a dirty dipper and you said Rachel i think your son just blew out his dipper and i cant do that because if i do then i will barfing everywhere. So can you come and change him and before I was done even putting his clothes back on him you where standing in the doorway saying ok are you done now. I am waiting he is not done eating his bottle yet and you have a growing little man right there and if he don't finish eating then he is going to be a little short shit like you and we don't want that. He need to be big and pleasantly plump like me. Man oh Man I can go on and on about the stories I have with you like the time when we where on the way to Disney World and we pulled over to get gas and so that you could check all the fluids in the car and Kimberly was only 3 years old and she beeped the car horn and you jumped so high you hit your head on the hood of the car and we were all laughing so hard that we were about to pee our pants. Or the time we went bowling and you was helping Marking though his ball and he went running after it and you went right behind him without thing how slippery the bowling lanes are and next thing you know Markie falls down and then you fall down right on your butt and everybody was laughing at you but you didn't care as long as we were having fun. I am going to miss you so much. I am going to miss your jokes the way you would laugh and all the goofy things you would do. I will see you again one day when it's my time but until that time comes all I can say is FLY HIGH UNCLE JIMMY FLY HIGH. I will always love you like my father. I know you will be watching over all of us from you star in the sky. and I will do my best to help Aunt Sandy, Kimberly, Mandy, and Markie get through these hard times without you.

My sincerest condolences to Sandy, and to the children. Anyone that ever met Jimmy, remembers him for his great ability to cause a smile. Jimmy was the best friend a fella could have ever had. I know. Growing up together in Clearwater Dunedin, I have the best memories possible from back in the day! Never, could anyone have been a better friend. Like a Brother..... Jimmy. You'll be missed by everyone whose life you touched. You've gone now, into the ages. But we will always remember you. Until we meet again..... Rest, my friend.....
