Conrad Edwards lit a candle in honor of Madhu.

Our sincerest condolences to Ashok, Anand, Uday, & the entire Mehta family
May the God of Peace & Love Bless each one of them with the courage, fortitude, & Peace of Mind to bear this great loss of Madhu in the days ahead and thereafter knowing somehow that Madhu will be engulfed in the arms of her Heavenly Father, in the best place possible - the Kingdom of God - serene, happy, & away from all suffering May this knowledge somehow bring them the Peace of Mind and sustain them all the days of their lives, knowing that we mourn just for ourselves and not for Madhu, who has passed on to the Best. We Never 'Get Over' the Great LOVES of Our Lives - and nor do we need to - We just deal with it the best way we can - always remembering the Promise that our Heavenly Father has made to us - Until We Can All Meet Again. This is our Prayer for each one of you. Amen! - With Love, Conrad & Barbara

I am at a loss for words - which is a very rare thing for me, since I have loved the written word since a very young age; and writing is my gift. No amount of superlatives could ever do justice in talking/writing about anyone as angelic as my Sweet Friend & Sister, Madhu. So, I am simply going to write the spur of the moment eulogy that I penned for Madhu & posted on my Facebook page on the day that my Sister passed on: "One of my Best Friends, Madhu Mehta, passed away peacefully early this morning I feel really devastated Madhu was a veritable Gem of a person - Her nature reminded me so much of my Sweet Mom - The epitome of Humility, Simplicity of Spirit, Totally Void of Materialism, Wise Beyond Words, And with a Very Keen/Sharp Intellect, Loved Everyone, Plus So Many Other Sweet Gifts & Accomplishments Too Many To Enumerate There are not too many people around like her. This world is just Sadder without Madhu - I am going to miss her so much. Rest In Peace Madhuji, my Sweet Friend & Sister I Will Always LOVE YOU!!!!!! I already Miss You So Much, and I am just crying for myself. I PRAY With All My Heart that We See Each Other Again One Day In The Kingdom Of God, and you get to meet my Mom - Your other Sweet Sister. In the meantime, Rest In Peace Our Beautiful Flower & Precious Doll, In The Most Holy Name of Jesus. Amen!"
