Victoria Saniukovich

MAY 9, 1973 - OCT 31, 2018

Дорогая наша, любимая Викуля. Нам очень больно и горько без тебя. Мы будем помнить тебя каждый день, каждый миг. Помнить добрую, нежную, заботливую, веселую, любимую. Всем нам очень тебя не хватает, но мы уверены, что оттуда, где обитает твоя душа, ты видишь и знаешь, как мы тоскуем по тебе, грустишь и радуешься вместе с нами.

To our dearest, beautiful, loving, strong, selfless, patient, courageous mama... Thank you for being the greatest role model, mentor, wife, mother, and friend that we could have ever asked God for. You were an angel your entire life, and we are so lucky to now have you as our family's Guardian Angel to help guide us, watch over us, and protect us. You spent your life making everyone around you smile, both literally by being an incredible dentist and also by being the kindest, most compassionate person anyone has ever met. Although it hurts to not have you here physically, we are glad that you have finally found peace in Heaven—you had already earned your place there long, long ago. You said you would come down to visit us from heaven as a feather... every time a feather falls next to us, every time we drink tea, watch an orchid bloom, see a butterfly float past us, or hear Shakira on the radio, we will know it's you sending little tokens of your love to comfort us. We love you more than anything, and we are grateful to be able to spread your legacy of love, kindness, humility, and grace with the world.

In my 25 years in dentistry Dr Victoria Saniukovich was the best boss I have ever had. That is a big statement for me since I have worked for a couple of great dentists. She gave a warm, personal touch to the office. Her patients felt safe and knew she had their best interests at heart. Her sense of humor was refreshing in a place that people came to with dread and sometimes fear. I remember her cartwheeling in the lab after one of us challenged her. Dancing to tunes in sterilization and in preparing for a marathon, performed deep lunges down the hallways. She would take selfies with the patients and her laughter was soft and sweet. Her talents for dentistry were beyond compare and her staff loved her dearly. She and I would have a few quiet lunches together and we would share our family stories with each other. She treated us to two cruises in the two and a half years she had the practice as a thank you for all our work and as team building. The team building turned out to be leisurely dinners, massages and sunny conversations on deck. She personally choose our new dentist to purchase her practice and made sure he fit in to her style and knew her patients would feel comfortable with him. I will miss her as I walk through the halls at work and know she is watching over us. Forever in my heart as a wonderful woman. Kate

Our beloved Victoria has gotten her wings, and I will always see her as an angel. In my dental office where she worked prior to her move to CO for additional schooling, we called her Vicki, and we loved her. We loved to laugh about hiding under our desks when we were kids, and we struggled to learn about 10 Russian words while she learned half the English dictionary in the same time. I would love to have half of her strength and ambition. She was truly a beautiful person who loved Alex and was so proud of Olga and Daniel. I loved the way her eyes would sparkle when she talked about Alex, and I could just feel the mama's love bursting from her when she spoke about Olga and Daniel. I can almost feel her looking after her family even now. Victoria was an absolute treasure and we will all carry wonderful memories of her beautiful spirit. Janice M Brand DDS
