I sometimes joke that I'm a good man that does bad things or I'm not a bad man I just do bad things .Phil was a good man that did nothing but good things! He never wavered to Who he was . he was the most giving person always thinking about everybody around him never himself . His enjoyment when it was time to joke was sincere and real . I never saw him in all the years working and he managing our branch lose his cool or waiver from being in creating the team concept. I never saw him in all the years working and he managing branch Lose his cool . he was a very religious and faithful man that never exhibited it in the open but you knew it was there . That was the way Phil did things caring about others and never his pointing to his self. I will never forget him .He help get a little Pat to Australia 13 years ago in which still would sincerely how he was doing. Our family trips to Pebble Beach and the many other days we were able to play our " charity" golf tournaments and the smell of his cigars will always be in the air. Phil again you were a good man that always did good things we will miss you dearly and will always love the time we spent with you . rest in peace my friend and hopefully see you someday back on the golf course Phil again you were a good man that always did good things we will miss you dearly and will always love the time you spent with you . I Truley loved being your friend . Sometimes we will never know why the good Lord decide to take you Surely there's a reason for it though,Love you always and thanks for the times spent ,Pat.

My deepest sympathies in the loss of Phil. I'll treasure the memories of his "radio voice" on the phone and how he made me laugh. Working in HR- that's a rarity! He will be missed!!! Bonnie Goebel, Henry Schein Inc.

I once heard that the definition of success is that it is not measured by the depth of your checkbook or how much is in your savings or investment accounts, not by the size of your house or how many properties you own, not how expensive your car is or how many you have. Success is measured by the width of your smile, the smile you put on the face of others and how many faces you made smile. Phil was extremely successful. For me, and I know for many others, when we close our eyes to remember Phil, we'll see that big ole beaming smile he always had on his face.....and we'll smile.Thank you Phil. Going to miss you, ya Putz!Nick & Lori Sullivan
