What a great lady and what a great loss. When Mare and I were in college together and we needed to study her Mom would invite me over for Sunday dinner. Italian of course and always delicious. Thanks for the wonderful meals. Much appreciated. May she rest in peace. My deepest sympathy Helene Pientek

When we used to visit Aunt Ann and Uncle Mike on Ford St. it seemed like Aunt Ann and Aunt Mary always had freshly baked homemade cookies. I remember always getting a big smile from Aunt Ann and a cookie! Today I came across my Mom's cookie press - when I picked it up I immediately thought of Aunt Ann. Our heart is broken for Uncle Mike and Maryanne and all the Demmas, Sobo's and Catalfamos. We send our love and prayers for peace to all of you. Love, Julie & Phil Cohen and family

If you look at the sky tonight you will see a new star burning bright. The name of that star is Ann Dema. She couldn't lift a case of water but she could lift your spirits. She was always ready to help. If Ann heard you were ill, she was there to make sure you had something to eat. She never had an unkind word no matter what was going on. Ann always had a smile for you and treated you like family from the moment you first met her. Incredible, kind, caring, selfless, generous, outstanding are just a few words used to describe a great woman I am honored to call my friend. Ann, you will be greatly missed by your husband, your children, your grandchildren, your sisters and brothers And the Family Strays like us that you treated as your own. We cherish the years we were allowed to have you here and to know you, and now we know you will watch over us and keep us safe. RIP Ann Demma we will love you always. Sue & Jerry Lipson ☐☐☐
