After ten days in ICU and a few days in rehabilitation attempts, we brought Ross home with Hospice where his loving wife attended him every minute without any thought to anything but Ross.

For everyone who knows Ross and Sylvia know the bond they shared.

Ross was predeceased by his eldest son, Ross Jr and will lie beside him on Earth and fly as angels above us.

Ross Leaves behind Sylvia Louise Broda, a loving wife of 54 years. They celebrated their 54th anniversary on October, 10, 2019.

Ross has two living children, James Broda and Wendy Thomas

He is survived by seven grandchildren, Tasigua, Ivy, Cassy, Jimmy, Jamie, Russell and Erin and 11 great grandchildren.

Ross served honorably in the army during the Vietnam era. After being honorably discharged on October 7th, he married his 16 year old bride on October 10, 1965.

Obituary

Ross Broda

JAN 6, 1941 - OCT 12, 2019

Ross goes to heaven to join his two older brothers, Vernon and Wayne, their loving mom, Lucy, dad, Paul and son, Ross Jr.

Ross is now playing fetch with Duke and lining up who to fish with and who is going to help him weld bird aviaries.

Ross was an expert carpenter and designed and built his own home. He drove fast cars in his youth, once or twice having to repaint the car to change its appearance. He traded in the cars for the trucks to fit his growing family.

He fished as he lived with passion and dedication whether it was on the old Captain Bob, a 42 foot deep sea fishing boat or the John boat gigging with a flash light. Whatever Ross did he did with his heart and hands.

Ross is incredibly loved and serves as a role model. Ross is a great man. Maybe, just maybe he is an angel for all of us now. When in need, call on him and just like in life, he will guide you on your path.

Louise, I'm so sorry to see this. You two have been together for so many years and you stood by him and I'm so glad we got to see him last year at the reunion. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Wish I could be there for you.

Ross Wendell Broda, my loving husband for 54 years was a loving son, brother, husband, grandfather, and great grandfather. He was an honest, kind and giving man. We have three beautiful children. He taught our children to be honest and considerate, strong and independent. To do the right thing even if it was hard to do. He would say when you do something, it has your name on it, so make sure you do it right to the best of your ability. Our love has always been strong and honest communication between the two of us could have been the key to our strong bond. If Ross was able to talk to you. He would tell you to communicate with each other, never hold anger inside and to live your dream by following your heart. To enjoy the little things, cherishing every minute for life is far too short. Remember to make memories for and with your loved ones, because memories are what will get you through the hard times and carry you into the future. I feel blessed to have had my Ross in my life. I will see you again my sweetheart.

Sylvia and family. My contact was brief with you and Ross, but it was obvious you were devoted to each other. I was touched by how you took care of him. Thinking of you both.
