So saddened to learn of this Gentle man's passing. Frank may have been a Hero for fighting for our freedoms, but to me, a Starbucks Barista, he was a Hero in a different way...he was a constant source of comfort, calm and kindness in a business often filled with opposite! I will miss his hugs, his stories and his smile, but mostly I will miss the way he made me FEEL after spending time with him! Rest Easy my friend. Prayers and love to all who miss him♡

So sorry to hear this news about Frank! We used to live across the street from Frank. He was the nicest man/neighbor/friend. He loved the kids and talking to them, and he always invited us in. I always loved hearing the stories of his travels and history, I will miss those times. Our deepest condolences! The Lord Family

Mr Frank, asd my husband & I called him, was an inspiration. He always had a smile, song or interesting story to tell us. He will be deeply missed in our neighborhood. So glad we met him. Our deepest condolences to his entire family.
