God's Garden Author unknown

God looked around his garden
And He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never closed your weary eyelids And whispered “ Please be thine “.

It broke our hearts to lose you But you didn’t go alone For part of us went with you That day that God called you home.

Urmila was an integral part of the fabric of the Western New York community of Indians and will be sadly missed. Urmilla's passing leaves a gap in the memories of those who were fortunate to experience her dedication to Indian culture including Hinduism and Jainism. Her warm, understanding manner made all who encountered her feel welcomed and special. We hail the richness of Urmilla's life and convey our sincere condolences to her dear family.

Will miss auntie. Her kindness, hugs, and kidney bean subji (my favorite growing up). She was like a second mom to many of us buffalo boys.

Our heartfelt condolences to the Jain family. Auntie was such a kind and loving lady. My parents, Prem and Vidya Bharadwaj and all of us, have the most wonderful memories of her... the potluck dinners, festivals, temple, and all of the conversations of life in Buffalo and India! All of these amazing, hardworking new immigrants to the US had the most amazing strength and dignity... a kind of struggle that none of us can comprehend. We all will miss her! May her soul Rest In Peace. May you all have strength to get through this. Om Shanti... Prem and Vidya Bharadwaj, and Vidhu and Sasidhar Eranki and family
