John H. McKay

JUN 26, 1930 - JUN 27, 2021

John H. McKay, born June 26, 1930, went home to Heaven on June 27, 2021 one day after his 91st birthday. He is survived by his devoted wife Betty Lou and his children Dana McKay and Scott McKay (with Kathy).

Jack was raised in Philadelphia and attended La Salle College where he was a cross-country athlete.

After his service in the Coast Guard, he joined Arthur Anderson & Co. and became a partner in charge of the small business department.

After retirement, Jack and Betty Lou moved to Florida to enjoy their family and friends and a happy life on the golf course.

My condolences to Jack's faithful wife of more than 40 years. I am sorry I never got to know Jack more than our brief encounters; I had hoped a final reunion would have been possible but now it is too late. I am nonetheless glad that Jack lived to be 91 years old despite long-term health challenges. His longevity must have been at least partially due to his faithful wife. My condolences to Betty Lou and Jack's family. John Doherty Haparanda, Sweden

Having known Jack and Betty Lou for years as friends when they and my wife and I lived in Eastlake Woodlands it was a great to live a few houses down the street in Heritage Springs from him. Also we had fun playing golf, especially in the annual Deer Run golf outing. His humor will be sorely missed. God Bless JoAnn and Jim
