Sallie Ann Gattuso

MAR 26, 1941 - JAN 9, 2022

Gattuso, Sallie Ann, 80, of Trinity, passed away peacefully on January 9, 2022. Sallie was born on March 26, 1941 in New York City.

Sallie Ann loved to take pictures as a hobby. It grew into a fantastic job opportunity as she took classes to develop her skill. She became a revered photographer winning numerous awards. She did self portraits, weddings and family pictures. Sallie Ann and her late husband, Andrew loved to travel. They been to Europe to Hawaii. Her favorite place was the Hawaiian islands where her ashes alongside her husband and late cats will be sprinkled to lay rest. And yes she adored cats. Her last cat Sabrina is with her God daughter dawn living in New York in style.

She is survived by her sister in law, Phyllis and Nini. She also has a nephew, Richard and niece, Camille. She also leaves behind good friends from Heritage Springs, especially Maryann and Santo.

A gathering of family and friends is to take place for Sallie at Trinity Memorial Gardens on Tuesday, January 18, 2022 at 3:00 pm. A memorial service will follow at 4:00 pm at Trinity Memorial Gardens.

Sallie Ann was the older Sister to twin Brothers, Robert (surviving) & William (deceased) Wentzell. She has two surviving Nieces Debby & Laurie as well as a Nephew Billy. Also several Great Nieces & Nephews. Along with two additional Sister-In-Laws, Barbara & Sophie. Apparently this part of her life & family were forgotten about over the years. But let's not forget about the cats !!!!Debby
