Ruth V. Morrow

DEC 31, 1917 - DEC 17, 2021

With much sadness we share that Ruth Virginia Morrow, 103, passed away peacefully on December 17, 2021. Born on December 31, 1917 in Ticonderoga New York, she considered both New Jersey and Florida home.

She is survived by her daughters, Ruth Anne Bernstein and Betty Jane Bray; grandchildren Edmund, Sherry, Scott, Laurie, Mark, Gary and Sharon; as well as great grandchildren Melissa, Charlie, Liza, Sarah, Jocelyn, Jasmine, Corinne, Jaden, Kimmy, Liam, Alexandra and Wesley. She is preceded in death by her husband Wesley Morrow and her sons-in-law Howard Bernstein and Edmund James Bray Jr.

Her love of family extended to nieces and nephews with whom she remained close.

Ruth's boundless energy exhibited in both work and play along with her positive attitude never failed to influence those around her. Her kindness and selflessness contributed to her long list of friends.

She lived a life to be celebrated and admired.

Ruth will be greatly missed, but she will be remembered with smiles and laughter. Stories and memories of her will be shared for generations to come.

Grandma I am sorry it is about or almost 4:30 in the morning. Yes, I still can't believe the fact since your passing you passed. This is a time in my life I wish we can have one of our little talks and you can tell your daughter, Ruthie. While sipping on coffee and explain it. Grandma thank you so much of the wisdom you and Grandpa has taught as a child and now that I am much older the tools and the wisdom you and Grandpa have taught me I can or have used I greatly appreciate. I know through hard times through thick and thin I truly can say and proud to say I am more than honored to be your Grandson. Love Always Your Loving Grandson, Mark Bernstein

Here something very Ironic. This shows the meaning of Ironic. My Mom and Grandma were big fans of the "Golden Girls" Betty White always made my Mom and Grandma laugh but if I am gathering my information right and I am sure I am off or very close I always wanted Betty White and my Grandma meet. She always got asked what she wanted my Grandma was the never materialistic person but my secret gift was for her to meet Betty White after or around when she was near her 100 Bday and she sadly passed away on my Grandma's Bday. One present I could never give my Grandma and which she so much deserved.

I just wanted to say good morning to a lot of people seeing these writings about my beloved Grandmother. I cherish her and the advice that she has given me throughout my whole life it is hard to get over her loss but she will never be forgotten and I know she is watching and smiling above me. Yes, Grandma I am starting to drink coffee with out much sugar lol (but still like whole milk not half and half) Yes, also my Aunt Betsy just sent me a text on what great and beautiful comments I wrote and the reason why I am making this public because I am proud and honored to be a Grandson of Ruth Virginia Morrow my Grandma. I wait her to see this above my shoulder that I am not writing this in a private message and everyone knows. Thank you Grandma for all you have given me and also helped my mother in her hard times with my father also. One final thing yes I miss you Grandpa Wesley Morrow!!!!!!

Auntie Ruth was a loving, caring person, who took care of everyone. We have such fond memories of her and Uncle Sam as we grew up. No matter the event, Auntie Ruth was there to help and share the load. Her energy was exceptional, but her kindness even greater than that. With Love, Darcy Hopko

Over our lifetime, the number of exceptional people my husband and I have encountered could be counted on one hand. Miss Ruth was one of those people. We only met her about four years ago, but at 100 years old she was electrifying. Her energy, humor and stories of her life were enchanting. Rest in peace Miss Ruth and know for eternity that you were loved and will be missed. Bill and Kandy
