Manuel Antonio Gutierrez Garcia

APR 2, 1948 - MAY 6, 2023

Manuel Antonio Gutierrez Garcia was born in Barranquilla Colombia on April 02 of 1948. Son of Francisco Gutierrez Floriano and Maria Elena Garcia Navarro, and he was the fifth of six siblings. Manuel completed an associate degree in mechanics with honors in Barranquilla Colombia, he then emigrated to Caracas Venezuela following the love of his life Rosalba Perez whom he contracted matrimony and formed a family from which they had three daughters, Rosa Maria, Claudia and Carolina. Later in life they moved to Puerto Ordaz where Manuel materialized his dream and became a very reputable and respected businessman. Manuel will be remembered as a family man always devoted to his wife and children, he was a loving son, brother, uncle, father, husband and friend. He possessed great strength, integrity and bravery facing life challenges with courage and even thou he would fell sometimes, he knew there was a lesson behind each situation to grow for a better self with his head up, humility and his peculiar sense of humor being this one of his mayor attributes.

Today Manuel will be remembered by his beloved wife and daughters, in laws, grandchildren, family and friends here in Tampa FL where he spent his last 8 years of life surrounded by his loved ones. Now we say until then and will honor your memory. May your soul rest in peace through our Lord Jesus Crist.
