Uncle Eddie had an old Ovation Guitar that he let me play when we were together. He would teach me a chord or two and talk with me about music. Nobody wanted to talk with me like that. He turned me on to Barenaked Ladies (the band!). I will cherish my time with him dearly. I will remember him with the smell of salt waves. I will picture that mischievous smile. I will hear his unique voice making a joke or telling a story. I am grateful for my Uncle Eddie.
