It is with heavy hearts that we acknowledge the passing of our beloved Madelyn, who departed this world on November 25th, 2023. Though her time with us was short, her beautiful spirit's impact will resonate for eternity.

Madelyn, born on January 29th, 2016, emanated a silent radiance that spoke volumes. Her expressive eyes and gentle demeanor were a testament to the profound emotions and love she carried within. Despite the absence of spoken words, her silent language touched the hearts of all fortunate enough to know her.

Madelyn approached life with a natural curiosity and enthusiasm. Her days were filled with the rhythm of music, the graceful movements of dance, vibrant hues from coloring adventures, and an unwavering sense of wonder inspiring all who knew her. Whether swaying to a melody or creating with crayons, her unique form of expression created a space for connection beyond conventional communication.

Madelyn leaves behind a legacy of love, embracing her father Clinton Evans, mother Lauren Evans, sister Harper Evans, extended relatives, friends, and dedicated nurses who became an essential part of her family. In her life's short duration, she forged distinctive connections with this treasured circle of loved ones. Touched by her kindness and exuberance, these connections were woven through the language of her heart.
