I don't believe I've seen Sharene since our days at LHS. I have good memories of attending my first birthday party outside of my family, that she invited me to. It was held in downtown Largo and I believe it was probably for her 7th or 8th birthday. Your dad, Jerry, was a friend through school also. Childhood friendships are special. Be thankful for the years you had with both of them. I'm so sorry for the loss you're now feeling.
