A favorite Saturday hangout for my husband, me and Jimmy became a friendship by circumstance. We offered a seat at our table (the place was packed), he accepted and that began a several years long friendship. We all loved the music, we all drank Budweiser, we loved horses, and Jimmy would share stories. While we were "Saturday" friends, we were friends...hugs, kisses, checking in, worried when absent....Jimmy loved when Jim Garrett played Hotel California....those are my memories And every time I hugged him I'd say "you always smell so great"...he would laugh, smile and say "love ya' darlin".....we will miss him ❤️

Jimmy, I am going cherish the time that we spent together over the past 27 years who would have known that a simple conversation of talking baseball at Beef O' Brady's would have grown into a friendship for a lifetime. You were like the father that I did not have and was my best friend. Rest in Peace my friend.

Jimmy lived life to the fullest. He loved his Budweiser (never a Bud Light), chicken wings (keep all green stuff away), and betting on sporting events, horses or anything else. Rest in peace in Jimmy. We will be reunited again some day.

Val, I'm so sorry Jim and Betty were so special to me. Not a day has passed that I don't wish I would have stayed closer. This is my torment. I pray to see them again one day so we can catch up 🤝🤝
