Stephen A Ramnarace

NOV 2, 1987 - NOV 28, 2024

Stephen A. Ramnarace, born on November 2, 1987, in Queens, NY, passed away on November 28, 2024. He was the beloved son of Hermattie Bhasin and Stephen N. Ramnarace.

To our beloved son, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend:

“Everyone loves in life, but we will love you even after you’re gone.”

“When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure.”

“If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane, I’d walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again.”

“Although it’s difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.”

If you can’t make the services and would like to send flowers to the family, please send them to Trinity Memorial Gardens.

“We have housed you as a beat in our hearts.”

Guests unable to attend are also welcome to view the service at the link below.

I had the opportunity to experience a short period of life with Steve. During that short period of time, he made me smile contagiously, learn to love fiercely, and he saved my life. (Literally. We went on a weekend vacation to St. Pete Beach, I was outside alone, and two men attempted to kidnap me. Steve found me by screams, and saved my life. Then he handled the police, and all the reports, and drove us, and my dog Lacy who we had brought with us, home— because I was in complete shock) I miss Steve daily, he was a big part of my son, Lincoln, and I'd life. His heart and soul was beautifully crafted and so contagious. His words were intentional, and as most of the time his actions. 😊 Steve, I wish I could have one more minute with you! I love you so much. Forever and Always & I can't wait to see you at the gates to the Kings Heavens. - Ashleigh King

Yessi lit a candle in honor of Stephen.

We still cannot believe that you are gone... Steve you brought so much laughter and light into our lives & so many others. We shared so many good times & memories from working together at Shephards, the Christmas parties, $1 Sunday nights, Team Brown, Brown Boxer, teddy grahams, soca car rides, and David's wedding. Just a few of the many memories that we will always cherish. We will forever miss you. Until we meet again when we are all home up there. Fly high Steve. ☐ Sending your familia much love from Yessi, Tasha, Jordan and Jose

Stevie, last time we talked you told me you were going to visit me in Toronto. While we never had the chance to have that visit but I am grateful for the star that you were and your ability to light up a room. I know you are smiling while listening to all the beautiful stories and tributes. Rest in power cuz. Love you.

Steve always had that iconic smile every time he saw me, even after I moved away and would come to visit. He was more than a friend, he was a brother. I'm going to miss those hugs and that laugh. The kindness and happiness he literally projected into every room he entered will forever remind me to be a better person. Legends never die
