Greg and I have so many wonderful memories of our time together with Mel and Debbie. After they moved to Florida we visited them every year and always had a great time. We always played May I for hours, while we ate endless snacks and then go to dinner then came back to their house and played more, and usually had dessert. As far as I remember it was always he or Deb that won! Mel always kept us up on the news about each of their children and the grandchildren. He loved the responsibility of taking them places and picking them up from school. And yes, he always had a joke or two to tell and they were funny. He and Deb added so much to our lives. We will really miss Mel, but will keep visiting Deb every year. We love you Mel and Deb, you are in our thoughts.
