Dad, you will be missed. There are so many memories of you. The one of you giving the neighborhood ice cream man an 8 track tape to play while driving through the neighborhood, watching you train boxers and going to boxing matches. You leading me to Christ when I was in high school. Us going out and leading people to Christ. And our phone conversations and Bible studies. I'm thankful to God for all you did for His Glory. And knowing that you are no longer in pain but resting in peace with our Heavenly Father. Love you Dad ❤️

I will miss calling you for prayer when I was afraid to face something or when I was traveling. I will miss hearing your voice the most. I will love and miss you forever dad. But knowing that you are in heaven and no longer in pain ,brings me comfort. I love you dad ❤️

Of course, I'll miss our conversations, which, often led to bible study. However, I can't forget the time my dad gave an 8-track tape to the ice cream man. He had a way reaching people.
