Ramesh Parikh

OCT 20, 1939 - AUG 13, 2025

It is with a heavy heart and sadness that we share the passing of our beloved Ramesh Parikh, a devoted husband, extraordinary father, and proud grandfather, on August 13, 2025.

Born in Balasinor, India, Ramesh embodied the spirit of courage and determination. In his early twenties, he took a leap of faith—boarding a ship to the United States with only $8 in his pocket and a dream in his heart. Through hard work, intellect, and unwavering perseverance, he built a successful career as a talented engineer, earning the respect of colleagues and friends alike.

Beyond his professional achievements, Ramesh was defined by his deep love for family. He shared 60 beautiful years of marriage with his beloved wife, Bharti Parikh, a partnership grounded in mutual respect, laughter, and unshakable support. Together, they raised two sons, Nimo (married to Sweta) and Ashish (married to Viraj), instilling in them the values of integrity, hard work, and compassion.

Ramesh found his greatest joy in his grandchildren—Nikhal, Roshni, Deven, and Shay—each of whom brought him immeasurable pride and happiness. His warmth, gentle wisdom, and ever-present smile will be remembered in countless cherished moments.

Ramesh's journey from humble beginnings to a life rich in love, accomplishment, and legacy is a testament to the American dream and to the resilience of the human spirit. He leaves behind a family who will forever be inspired by his example and grateful for the time shared with him.

A celebration of Ramesh's life will be held on Saturday August 16th, at 4:00pm, where family and friends will gather to honor his memory, share stories, and carry forward his legacy of kindness, humility, and perseverance.

Ramesh Uncle was a terrific neighbor and friend, and we often shared a good laugh. Ramesh Uncle helps me to keep an eye on my parents, especially counseling Dad on senior-risky behavior. Here's a recent photo of him at Dad's birthday party, bringing the party spirit & wearing one of the prop policeman's hats given out to those who will scold Dad with care. :-) One time, he saw a turtle crossing the street into our open garage, so he dashed over to advise my parents to close the garage. Unfortunately, the turtle beat him across the street. We will miss watching him tend to his garden (providing a beautiful view for us), going on walks with Auntie, and popping over for a quick catch-up. May his soul rest in peace & may God give his family strength at this difficult time. ~Arvind, Saroj & Beena

In Loving Memory of Ramesh BhaiJyoti and I feel truly fortunate to have met Ramesh Bhai in Attleboro, Massachusetts, during the early days of our marriage when we were new to the area. From the very beginning, he embraced us with open arms and made us feel like a part of his family. Ramesh Bhai was deeply devoted to his family, friends, and community. He lived with humility, generosity, and showered love on everyone around him. His warmth, thoughtful guidance, and unwavering support created lasting bonds with us and left behind a legacy of love and respect. Although his presence will be greatly missed, his values, his laughter, and the many lives he touched will continue to carry his spirit forward. We remain forever grateful for the time we shared with him and will always cherish those memories. Hari Om and Shanti.
