T racy Karalyn McCabe

November 20, 1962 – October 21, 2025

New Port Richey, FL

Tracy Karalyn McCabe (Smith/Ulm) passed away unexpectedly on October 21. Tracy battled and survived Multiple Sclerosis for 22+ years. It was never easy for her, but she always tried to keep a positive outlook and spirit about it.

Tracy was the beloved daughter of Lynn (deceased) and Katherine (deceased) Ulm. Tracy is survived by, Brad (Brother), Robert III (Son), Eilisia (Daughter), Bryce (Son), as well as her 5 grandchildren (RJ, Kayslee, Freja, Alayna, Oliver). Tracy was a beloved daughter, sister, mother and grandmother, as the grandkids called her, Grandmauge.

Tracy spent her entire career in the Telecom industry, holding many positions and roles. None she was prouder of than that of Sports Marketing Director during her tenure with Pacific Bell. Above all, she always went above and beyond for customers and clients.

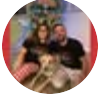

A celebration of life will be held, dates are still being determined. An update will be provided here.

I'll always remember her strength and how well she kept a positive attitude despite her battle with MS. She was kind, gentle, very strong, and absolutely adored her grandchildren. I know she walking, running, pain free, and enjoying heaven to the fullest.
