Eileen Mary Tiano

JUN 14, 1943 - DEC 2, 2025

Eileen M. Tiano, 82, of New Port Richey, FL, passed away peacefully at home on December 2, 2025, surrounded by the love of her family.

Born on June 14, 1943—Flag Day—in Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, Eileen proudly carried a deep sense of patriotism throughout her life. She was the daughter of James and Mary McGoldrick and a graduate of Archbishop Prendergast High School, Class of 1961. She later pursued business studies before beginning an extraordinary life of service and dedication.

Eileen married the love of her life, James M. Tiano, on August 29, 1975, and together they shared 50 beautiful years of marriage. A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Eileen cherished her family above all else.

Eileen lived a life marked by service, courage, and determination. She proudly served in the Marine Corps, Army and the Air Force, and later fulfilled her lifelong dream of becoming a Philadelphia Police Officer, where she served in the Major Crimes Unit. One of her proudest accomplishments was winning a landmark age-discrimination lawsuit against the Philadelphia Police Department; an achievement that paved the way for others and removed age limits for becoming a Philadelphia Police Officer. Her strength and resilience made a lasting impact on the law enforcement community.

Beyond her professional life, Eileen enjoyed baking, bowling, playing Bingo, crafts, shopping, holiday decorating, and spending time with her family. She loved Elvis and found joy in the simple moments—especially those shared with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Her warmth, humor, and unbridled spirit will be deeply missed.

Left to cherish her memory are her beloved husband, James M. Tiano; Her children:, Jon Broadley Geraldine Pietrzak (Ken), Denise Costello (Tim), Josephine Kasinetz (Dave), Helen Cosenza (Don), Barbara Webb (George); She is also survived by 16 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren, with one more blessing on the way.
