Ramesh Ramanathan posted:

I first met Surendrabhai in Fall 1983. I had thought his would be but a cameo role to play in my life. However, as I got to know him better it was a revelation to realize how much he cared about fellow human beings and how much his principles would influence me. He and Pannaben had me stay with them at 3 Eva Lane in Scarsdale. I cannot forget the boundless hospitality that was offered to me in this wonderful home. I wasn't an internist and neither was I planning to train as one and as such, I missed out being taught Surendrabhai's discipline. I did land a research position at the Montefiore Medical Center in Pathology, a job for which Pannaben had recommended me with aplomb. During one of the evenings a couple of months later when we had dinner, out of the blue, Surendrabhai offered to give me money to buy myself a car knowing fully well that I was not settled in the US and could not afford a car by myself. I will never forget his amazing generosity in making such a move without any strings attached. Such was his caring nature for a newbie in the US. I left New York and moved to Wisconsin to start my Pathology residency. Before departing from New York, Surendrabhai made it very clear that if I needed any money, he would be happy to send it quickly so as to get myself settled in a new habitat where I knew not a soul. He was a tower of strength for me as I toiled with balancing demands of Residency and getting a home in time for the arrival of my wife and daughter within a month. I reconnected with Surendrabhai and Pannaben in Tampa eleven years ago when he was giving his time and energy to Swadhyaya after his semiretirement. We never lost touch since then. I am forever grateful to the Almighty for having my path cross Surendrabhai's early on in my US life. He has now ascended to Kailash to be with Lord Shiv. My wife Chitra and I wish his Soul eternal Peace. Om Shanti. Ramesh & Chitra Ramanathan

I was fortunate enough to virtually meet Mahadevia sir for my USMLE steps classes. And he was such a great mentor that taught so many things outside just medicine, and I am so grateful for that. Just feel so unlucky that couldn't meet him in-person. And its hard to believe that such an amazing soul is no more with us. I hope we can do even a cent of work he did and brought change to thousands of lives.Om ShantiJay Yogeshwar

I first met Surendrabhai at St.Mary's hospital, Brooklyn NY in 1976 as second year medical resident. He was associate director. We became close friends and end working together for more than 40 years. He was astute clinician and gifted teacher. He helped Jamaica hospital to achieve 100% passing rate for American Board of Internal Medicine after joining the program in four years for next twenty years. What an achievement. He was a gentle giant. Always ready to help anyone who needed any kind of help that he could render. We will miss him dearly. A Cosmic Tribute to Surendrakaka from the Bhavsar family.Surendrakaka was never just a family member. From the moment we first stepped into his Tampa home, it became a second home—radiant with warmth, generosity, and the quiet assurance that help would always flow, as naturally as a river continuing its course.His life was not only the journey of a doctor, but of a superhuman spirit—one whose very presence was a blessing, a living embodiment of compassion and strength. He carried within him the dharma of service, the cosmic rhythm of giving without measure.For Nauka, for my son, for my daughter, and for me, his absence will echo beyond words. Yet we know that his karma has prepared him for the heavenly abode, where his soul now shines among the stars.He lived as a guardian of humanity, and he departs as a beacon of Yogeshwar's grace. His memory will remain not as sorrow, but as a reminder that the divine flows through those who live with boundless love.Jai Yogeshwar.

I am Gangadharan whom Dr saheb used to address me as "Ganga" Since his coming over to Tampa Florida i was one of the few whom he kept in contact always and shared all his efforts to establish a Swadhey center very near to my house. And when ever i visited that center on Sundays DR saheb will take extra special attention of introducing me to every one there. I used to wonder why. But then i realized within few weeks of association with him about his special affection and care . And each time i travelled out of Tampa to see my grand children he will always wish me safe travel. His special care is not only about me but constant inquiry about my family and grand children too. Recently after I came to know about his illness I started visiting him at his house and offered my prayers and was hoping i can continue that service on a continued manner. But as the saying goes "we ask something but Devinity gives you something " Wherever Dr saheb he will continue to bless us all to carry on the good work he had rendered all his life. My prayers to my Guru and Kuladeivam to bless Dr shaeb family and give strength and peace to carry on at this hard time. The los is not easy to replace but time will provide the healing. In today's world, it feels almost unbelievable that such a man could live so faithfully by his ideals, unselfishly and consistently, until the veryend. He did so with grace, dignity, and inner strength, even in the face of illness.The world is truly a better place because of him. His absence leaves a deep void, and he will be missed immensely. Light a candle in Loving Memory of Dr. Mahadevia Saheb. It is with profound sadness that I share the passing of our mentor and guide Dr. Mahadevia Saheb. He was not only the person who guided me through one of the most defining chapters of my life—earning a residency position—but also the kindest and most selfless soul I have ever. He possessed the rare ability to see potential in others before they could see it themselves. His compassion extended beyond the walls of medicine; it touched everyone who crossed his path. Whether through his thoughtful words, tireless support, or simple acts of kindness, he changed lives in quiet yet profound ways. For me, he was more than a mentor—he was family. His guidance shaped not only my career but also the person I strive to be each day. The world feels emptier without his gentle presence, but his lessons, generosity, and spirit will remain with all of us who were fortunate enough to know him. May his soul rest in eternal peace, and may we honor his memory by carrying forward the kindness and compassion he lived by every day. Jai Yogeshwar.

My first encounter with Dr. Mahadevia was in March 1992, when I walked into Jamaica Hospital without an appointment, seeking a residency position. At the time, he was the Associate Program Director. He met with me, interviewed me for nearly an hour, and offered me a residency- an act that would change my life. Dr. Mahadevia helped countless IMG by providing guidance, coaching, and unwavering support in securing residencies and preparing for board examinations. He played a pivotal role in helping many qualified physicians on H-1 and J-1 visas fulfill their American dream. I personally witnessed his extraordinary generosity. Some doctors who arrived from India with no family in the United States stayed with him for a month or two, until he ensured they were settled—going so far as to help them sign their apartment leases. Acts like these sound almost like legendary folklore in this day and age. A truly altruistic soul—an ordinary person who lived an extraordinary life. A common man with an uncommon spirit. An unsung hero who lived simply, gave generously, and helped others without condition or recognition. Though he has left this world, his kindness lives on in the countless lives he touched. Surendramasa, a truly wonderful person, was the kindest and most helpful soul we have ever encountered. His gentle spirit brought light to so many lives, and his generosity and helpful nature were a gift to the world. We will dearly miss him. There are so many wonderful memories we have with dear Surendramasa. Our thoughts and prayers are with Soham, Palak, Pannamasi, and the entire family during this difficult time. Please know that we are here to support you in any way we can. Jai Shri Krishna.Nipa, Umang and family

I met Mahadevia saheb for the first time in India when he came to provide guidance to the new medical graduates. He helped me get into residency. He has not only helped shape my career but also helped with important life decisions. I derived so much spiritual guidance just by thinking of his virtues. He has helped countless people without any expectations. His humility, selflessness, compassion has touched so many hearts. Whoever came around him even for brief moments experienced his pure selfless love. He was a divine being in the human form. He will remain alive in my heart and hearts of many. He will be missed by all of us but his memories will always remain with us forever. He is back in the abode of God for eternity.Sudhir Patel

Dr. Mahadevia Saheb, we fondly called him saheb, he was the best teacher and best medical educator I've ever met. He was always compassionate, kind, and acted as a fatherly figure for me. He always guided me whether it be personal life decision or medical education related question. When I moved to United States from India, I didn't know anyone I got Dr. Mahadevia's phone number from a friend and I was hesitant about calling, but I did call him and he set my life in United States. I ended up carrying it residency interview within three days and I was in my residency in less than a year. He has been amended to so many people like me. I feel so sad that he's not around us. It is a big loss. Dr. Mahadevia was mentor for me not just as a physician, but he guided me in life decisions also.Panna madam please accept my sincere condolences,Om ShantiRasik Parmar

50 years ago when I came to this country first time, Surendrabhai came to pick me up at Kennedy airport. It was my first time to be away from family with lots of sadness & anxiety. Both Surendrabhai & Panna were my family since then and all their extended family & friends became mine too. From then on he coached me to read subway maps & I could go everywhere by myself in subway. His coaching was so good that later he would ask me how to get to certain place in New York. He even helped me with my first car buying and driving in the city. I stayed at their house and were the most memorable years of my life. Both of them even provided me with moral support choosing my life partner and almost acted as my parents along with Jasubhai & Jyotsnabhabhi. Surendrabhai will be missed by family, friends, colleagues and community. All I can do is follow the lessons learned and do good for everyone as he did for everyone. shanti.. Nita. Navan. With folded hands and a heavy heart, I offer my heartfelt condolences on the sad demise of Dr. Surendrabhai Mahadevia sir.He was truly one of the most inspiring personalities I have ever met in my professional journey at Krishna Heart.Dr. Mahadevia sir was humility personified—soft-spoken, kind-hearted, and deeply compassionate. What touched me most was his personal involvement in patient care, especially for geriatric patients who needed not just medical treatment but emotional support and dignity.One experience remains etched in my heart forever. A geriatric patient whom Dr. Mahadevia sir had treated in America wished to return to India, but there was no family member available to care for him. At that moment, Dr. Mahadevia sir decided to plan his own visit to India and personally ensured that the patient received complete care and support at Krishna Heart, Ahmedabad—standing by him like a family member. This was not an exception; it was his nature. Such selfless compassion is rare and divine.He quietly supported numerous poor families by donating surgery charges for children suffering from congenital heart disease, never seeking recognition. His goodness was like an open book—each page filled with seva, sacrifice, and silent generosity.We have lost not just a doctor, but a legendary soul, a guiding light, and a guardian angel for many.Pannaben madam, this is an irreparable loss for the entire Krishna Heart family. Though Dr. Mahadevia sir is no longer physically with us, his values, teachings, and love will live in our hearts forever. He never lived for applause or achievements—he lived for people.I carry countless sweet memories of this noble soul, memories that will continue to inspire me for life.🙏 Pranam to a great soul.May the universe grant him the highest place in the eternal realm.🙏 Om Shanti Om 🙏With deep reverence and gratitude,Kalindi

Obituary for Dr. Surendrabhai Mahadevia. It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Dr. Surendrabhai Mahadevia, a beloved teacher, guide, and lifelong friend, who left us on 12/14/2025. Dr. Mahadevia was not only a brilliant physician but also a spiritual giant, known for his embodiment of kindness and compassion. Dr. Mahadevia's journey began in 1970 when he took me under his wing as an intern in Dr. O.P. Gupta's unit at the Civil Hospital in Ahmedabad. His profound knowledge and unwavering support inspired many, including myself. An ardent student of the Gita, he instilled in those around him a sense of purpose and commitment to service. In 1990, through his inspiration and support, I was fortunate to meet Dadaji, Pandurang Shastri Athavle. With Dadaji's inspiration, Surendrabhai, Pannaben, Vandana and myself, we embarked on an ambitious project in 1998 to establish the first open heart surgery center in Ahmedabad. At that time, advanced cardiac care was scarce, forcing patients in Gujarat to seek treatment in Bombay, Madras, or Delhi. The Mahadevia family played a crucial role in making this dream a reality, dedicating countless hours and making over 20 trips to India over the next 13 years to ensure the success of the Krishna Heart Hospital. Dr. Mahadevia was instrumental in shaping the careers of countless young doctors, helping them pass examinations and settle in the USA. He conducted classes at Krishna Heart, empowering them to achieve high scores. His commitment to healthcare and medical education was profound, and he organized numerous health camps to benefit the community. Having collaborated for more than three decades, we worked tirelessly to bring life-saving technology to the people of Gujarat. He inspired more than 100 NRI friends who poured their hard earned money to establish a multimillion dollar project against all odds. Dr. Mahadevia's legacy will forever live on in the hearts of those he touched. We extend our heartfelt condolences to his family and loved ones. May the Lord grant him the best placement in the eternal realm. ॐ Om Shanti ॐ 🌸🌸🌸 Dr. Atul & Vandana Chokshi [[OBJJOB]]

He saw in me the potential which I myself had not seen when he accepted my application for the residency program at Jamaica Hospital Medical Center. I've come to recognize he was a true teacher in the sense of life, sciences, and medicine. His focus was on how to teach and train future doctors, not to be just physicians but to be leaders in their practices. I'm truly grateful for my time at Jamaica Hospital Medical Center and his tutelage. I'm sure his successors are doing a fantastic job, but none can match the humility and dedication of Dr. Mahadevia.
