“ Dear Joyita, Paul and I were so sorry to learn of Dave’s passing and we offer you our sympathy on your loss. Dave’s passing brings back so many reminders of our teenage years and the good times we all shared . . .” the good old days.” I know my brother Joe will miss Dave’s visits.
With prayers and caring thoughts,

“ I loved Dave from the moment I met him - at a family reunion where I was just meeting the entire relation for my first time - his blessing that day will forever be engrained in my heart....spoken with such pride: "our family of many colors". Memories of his story telling, his jokes, his love will surely be with me forever. (AND those calls and voice mails I received from him early on - unforgettable!) God speed to David and love & prayers for the entire Frook relation at this beautiful time of remembrance.

“ My favorite memories were times spent with the Frook family as a young girl. The last time in Antioch where Dave introduced me to the Soul Supreme album collection which I went home & purchased. It was my introduction to Soul & Blues. Thanks Dave!
