“ Mom it's Mother's Day on Sunday. Our first year without you to celebrate with. My favorite memory to share is when you taught me how to write in cursive when I was a young child. You loved to take us out to eat for our birthdays or celebrate for any reason. Each time now that we go out to eat at a restaurant I look at the empty chair and wish you were sitting there with us. We will always remember you! You are our angel looking down upon us. Miss you!

“ Many things you taught us children. You are missed so much. You showed us how to love others. You will never be forgotten and will be in our hearts forever.

“ I love you Mom! There's no words to describe how much you mean to me. Even to this day you are always thought of every moment of my life. I cry at sings heard on the radio, when I pass your favorite restaurants, and just any time when something or someone reminds me of you. I did not realize how much you have done for our family. You were our backbone. You are irreplaceable. We wi continue to live your legacy. Thank you for visiting us in our dreams. Love you so much! Twinkle
