“ When our families melded, Gloria became a wonderful friend to me. Her sweet disposition drew me ever closer to her. One of my favorite memories is when our grandson, Joey was born. Gloria watched as Joey made his entrance. She was enthralled and couldn't wait to hold him in her arms. Soon, we were passing him back and forth between us! Gloria whispered to me, "Get the neck, get the neck"! We must have nuzzled the hair off the back of that baby boy's neck! We now shared a beautiful grandbaby boy! I fell in love with her that day and love her still. I miss you, Gloria...Until I see you again!

“ Gloria was such a wonderful lady. She brought so much joy to the other residents at Meadowbrook. My favorite memory is of her doing a little tap dance on her way to the lunch room with that unforgettable twinkle in her eye. We were privileged to visit her weekly and bring her holy communion from Holy Family Catholic Church .
